PEYRASSOL

LA COMMANDERIE DE PEYRASSOL

In the heart of the Var hinterland, between Aix-en-Provence and Nice, the Commanderie de Peyrassol estate reveals itself like a hidden gem, showcasing its many facets.

Since its acquisition by Philippe Austruy in 2001, the Commanderie de Peyrassol has established itself as a place dedicated not only to the production of exceptional wines through its vineyard, Château Peyrassol, but also to contemporary artistic creation. Now home to one of the most remarkable open-air contemporary art collections, the Philippe Austruy Collection features around a hundred works of art set within a true Provençal haven — surrounded by vineyards, a remarkable garden, and rolling olive-covered hills.

A botanical, gastronomic, cultural, and artistic treasure, the Commanderie de Peyrassol and the Château Peyrassol vineyard form a captivating place where biodiversity coexists in harmony with works of art, while the ancient stone cellars house elegant, terroir-driven wines.

One of the most inspiring destinations in the south of France welcomes you for all your professional events, offering a unique setting to showcase and elevate your business !

SPACES TAILORED TO YOUR NEEDS

Our various reception rooms, full of authentic charm, are perfectly suited to all your corporate events: seminars, study days, executive committee meetings...

Our 300 m² Salle de Réception hosts your professional events in a prestigious setting: its glass roof overlooking the vineyards of Château Peyrassol and exposed wooden beams make it an ideal venue for galas, product launches, and other conventions.

At the heart of the Commanderie de Peyrassol, just steps from the captivating sculpture park and the Remarkable Garden, two century-old mulberry trees stand proudly in the center of the Place du Village. This authentically charming space allows you to host all kinds of large-scale events under the blue skies of Provence, perfectly complementing the reception hall for two-part events.

The Commanderie de Peyrassol welcomes your corporate meetings in three dedicated spaces. The Salle des Commandeurs is perfect for small group meetings. The Salle des Gardes with its centuries-old stone walls, still echoes the Templar past of the Commanderie, bringing authenticity and prestige to your event.

In dialogue with the surrounding landscape, the Salle des Créateurs, with its contemporary lines and timeless elegance, completes our range of spaces for professional events in a more artistic setting. An outdoor patio adjoining this room provides an ideal setting for a sunlit coffee welcome or a cocktail reception overlooking the vineyards and le Damier flottant arc-en-ciel by Daniel Buren.

YOUR EVENT AT LA COMMANDERIE DE PEYRASSOL

ORGANIC WINE ESTATE ETHICAL EVENTS

Nestled in the heart of a majestic forest teeming with biodiversity, Château Peyrassol's vineyard crafts elegant wines under the prestigious AOP Côtes de Provence designation. Certified organic since 2023, the estate embodies a viticulture that respects both nature and people. As a tribute to this preserved environment, the Commanderie de Peyrassol invites visitors to discover and celebrate the estate's rich natural heritage.

Château Peyrassol spans 850 hectares, including 105 under vine, and stands out for its remarkable biodiversity, fostered by the estate's secluded location. Surrounded by quintessential Mediterranean vegetation —holm oaks, white oaks, pines, cedars, olive trees, and fragrant garrigue— the domaine captures the very essence of Provençal authenticity.

At an altitude of 300 meters, the vineyard flourishes on clay-limestone soils, producing certified organic wines under the AOP Côtes de Provence label. The range includes rosé, white, and red wines crafted from emblematic varietals such as Cinsault, Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvèdre.

In harmony with nature, agricultural practices like cover cropping and sheep grazing support soil regeneration and encourage the return of rare wildlife, including the Hermann's tortoise and the genet.

La Commanderie de Peyrassol provides an exceptional natural setting for corporate events, offering immersive experiences and guided walks through this vibrant, living heritage.

PHILIPPE AUSTRUY ART COLLECTION

After acquiring the estate in 2001, Philippe Austruy, an art lover and wine enthusiast, began installing sculptures in the heart of unspoiled nature. Today, the Philippe Austruy collection can be discovered through a sculpture park, an art center, and temporary exhibitions. Hosting a professional event at la Commanderie de Peyrassol ensures it will be infused with contemporary art, bringing a unique and captivating dimension to the experience.

Counted among the finest open-air contemporary art collections, the Philippe Austruy Collection today brings together around eighty outdoor sculptures, set within the heart of a Provençal landscape. Constantly evolving, the collection brings together major figures of contemporary art — Frank Stella, Bertrand Lavier, Berlinde De Bruyckere, Daniel Buren, Niki de Saint Phalle — alongside an active policy of artist commissions and invitations.

Deployed across the vineyards, woodland areas and the Remarkable Garden, the sculptures create a journey of rare scale and ambition.

A collection revealed on a grand scale

Extending the outdoor parcours, the Commanderie de Peyrassol opens a new chapter this year in its contemporary art collection. From the art centre to the newly opened visitable reserve, nearly 2,000 square metres of space are now accessible to the public, either on self-guided or guided tours.

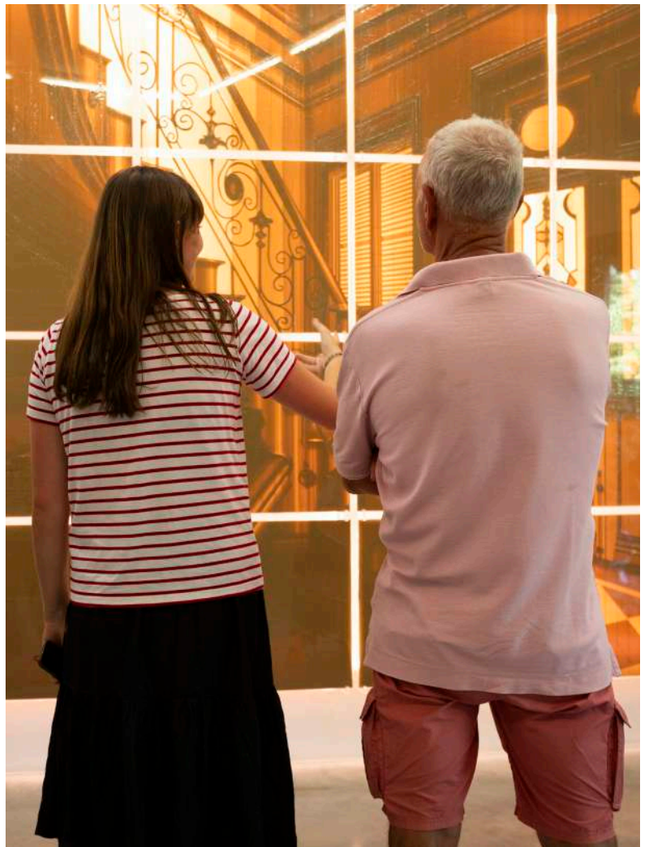

This opening highlights the richness of the collection, making it possible to present works previously unseen and to introduce new thematic routes. It thus offers visitors a broader and more legible understanding of the collection as a whole, bridging outdoor artworks and exhibition spaces.
